This map shows boundaries of the Latin Rite dioceses whose bishops belong to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Archdioceses are indicated by capital letters and Ecclesiastical Provinces are grouped by color. USCCB regions are shown within maroon lines and indicated by Roman numerals. Dashed lines show where dioceses cross state lines. "I am deeply grateful to the CCS Team for their role in our campaign's success. I am, of course, grateful for the tremendous financial success of our campaign. But I was pleasantly surprised to see the campaign also become a source of greater unity for our presbyterate and our diocese. That was an unexpected and very welcome outcome and CCS played an important role in that too."

Around the turn of the 19th Century, the two sister companies Franz Mayer of Munich and F.X.Zettler belonged to the worldwide renown and appreciated stained glass studios. Famous for their sophisticated "Munich style", they produced stained glass windows of highest and finest quality for more than 50 cathedrals and thousands of churches just for their American clientele.
The Mayer studio, now owned and operated by the 5th generation, is still strongly obliged to its tradition and heritage: in style, qualities, and values. Together with their crew of artists, glass painters and master craftsmen, they take all their efforts to meet the high quality, details, and transparency of the traditional windows – even nowadays.
The self-conception of quality and workmanship combined with the ability to explore and improve has made Franz Mayer of Munich one of the international leading studios for stained glass, architectural glass and mosaic.

Human Life International's mission is to defend the authentic God-given rights and dignity of all human persons from conception until natural death, and to promote the natural family through education, outreach, advocacy and service. Founded in 1981, HLI is the only Catholic grassroots, pro-life missionary organization working on six continents to defend the sacredness of all human life. HLI's pro-life missionaries travel the world to organize, train and equip pro-life leaders to defend their cultures against governments and non-governmental organizations that promote an anti-life and anti-family agenda in which unborn children and the natural family are seen as obstacles to progress and development. While HLI is completely faithful to the Holy Father and the Magisterium, and works with Catholic dioceses worldwide, we work with people of all faiths to advance the cause of life.

Type of Business:

Through the efforts of Father Michael McGivney, a 30-year-old parish priest, and his parishioners at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, the Connecticut legislature officially chartered the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society March 29, 1882. Though the organization has grown to more than 15,000 councils and 1.9 million members across the United States, Canada, Philippines, Mexico, Poland, Ukraine, South Korea, the Caribbean and Central America, it has been true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity for 136 years.

The foresight of Father McGivney, who was declared venerable by the Holy See in 2008 as part of his ongoing cause for canonization, brought about one of the world's foremost Catholic lay organizations. The Knights of Columbus is a model of Christian service to charitable causes in local communities and across the world. In 2017, Knights contributed more than $185.6 million and 75.6 million volunteer service hours to worthy causes across the globe. The K of C's charitable activities are carried out in parishes and neighborhoods and through national and international efforts such as Coats for Kids, Special Olympics, disaster relief and assistance for the persecuted religious minorities in the Middle East.
